2012 SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS

SUMMARY:

The Pinellas Association of Plumbing Heating Cooling Contractors has a total of three (3) scholarships that may be awarded in June 2012: Joe White Scholarship; Ralph Hay Memorial Scholarship; and David Fehrenbach Memorial Scholarship. It is anticipated that up to $3,000 will be available for award to applicants in 2012. The Joe White and Ralph Hay Scholarships will be awarded to applicants pursuing any post secondary program leading to a degree or certificate. The David Fehrenbach scholarship will only be awarded to an applicant pursuing a degree or certificate in a construction related program.

The PAPHCC scholarships are designed to provide partial funding to recent high school graduates or other individuals to advance their education at a technical trade school or a two or four year nationally accredited college or university. Scholarship funds will be distributed prior to the beginning of the academic year and used to pay for tuition, books, tools or other costs related to the pursuit of the degree or certificate.

To apply for these annual scholarships, applicants must complete the required forms and provide all requested materials to the PAPHCC Scholarship Committee no later than the specified deadline.

REQUIREMENTS:

A PAPHCC contractor member must sponsor the scholarship applicant. First consideration for applicants is given to PAPHCC contractor member employees or families. PAPHCC sponsoring members must be a Contractor Member in good standing for at least two (2) years.

First time scholarship applicants must have a high school diploma or an equivalent GED or be graduating from high school in 2012. A grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.6 is required if a high school graduate or enrolled currently in a post secondary program. GPA documentation must be attached to the scholarship application. Applicants must provide documentation of enrollment in or acceptance into a nationally accredited technical trade school or a two- or four-year college or university.

Past recipients may reapply but must submit a new application, be enrolled full-time in classes and provide documentation of at least a 2.6 GPA.

All applicants must complete the required paperwork and submit it to the PAPHCC Scholarship Committee. Applicants who receive a scholarship are required to attend the meeting at which their scholarship is presented. Scholarship recipients are also required to send grade reports documenting their academic progress to the PAPHCC Scholarship Committee each semester covered by the scholarship.

The application must be completed and submitted by the applicant. The application form is to be accompanied by the following three letters of recommendation: one from a teacher, school administrator, or immediate supervisor; one from a person not related to the applicant; and one from the company sponsor. Each letter must state why the individual should be considered as a candidate for the PAPHCC scholarship program. The applicant is also required to write a letter with a minimum of 250 words and a maximum of 500 words describing why he/she should be considered as a recipient of the PAPHCC scholarship. All decisions by the Scholarship Committee are final upon approval by the PAPHCC Board of Directors.
